Summer Students Handbook 1967

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

To The Student

The University of Toronto takes pleasure in welcoming you to the campus as a member of the Summer School. This handbook is published to inform you of the wide variety of extra-curricular activities available during the Summer Session as well as the facilities and services to be found on the University campus and in the surrounding area.

The extra-curricular program, first initiated in 1961, has grown and expanded and is now a vital and vigorous part of the Summer Session. While the academic life of the University must always take priority, the social, physical and intellectual stimulus of the extra-curriculum should not be neglected. The two aspects of University life complement each other to form an integral whole and it is with this purpose in mind that the program is offered. None of you will have time for all of the activities, but all of you should have time for some.

It is hoped that you will find at the University, a congenial atmosphere in which to pursue your studies, and that your stay will be a rewarding and successful one.

INFORMATION CENTRE

The Information Centre, located in the Map Room of Hart House, is the hub of all summer student activities. Mrs. Dorothy Deane, who is in charge of the Centre, provides students with information on all activities and services offered during the Summer Session.

Announcements, notices, brochures, city and subway maps, train and bus schedules, the three daily newspapers are available at the Centre.

A Students' Notice Board is provided for notices regarding lost and found articles, car pools, used books, etc.

Summer students are urged to use this room for informal group discussions, study, reading, writing or relaxing.

DATES: July 4 — August 11

HOURS: Mon-Fri 8.45 a.m. — 4.30 p.m.

SUMMER EVENING SESSION STUDENTS: Questions may be answered by telephoning the Information Centre in the daytime or the Division of University Extension in the evening or by coming in person to Hart House on Wednesday nights.

A Summer Students' Committee, easily identified by the special name tags they wear, assists Mrs. Deane. They are always ready to give advice and assistance.

The program includes: "Hart House Wednesday Night" (dancing, swimming, bridge, cribbage, chess, table tennis, badminton, etc.); athletics and sports (see pages 4 and 5); concerts and lectures; informal noon-hour discussion-interviews; a Summer School choir.

"Campus Events", a bulletin distributed each Monday in July and the first two weeks of August, gives detailed information about the events of the week on Campus.

There is also square and round dancing. Outdoor pools in the parks and indoor pools in the schools are available for swimming. Baseball, football and soccer leagues provide a full schedule of games. Toronto Islands Park can be reached by ferry.

Sightseeing includes Casa Loma, Toronto's only castle, where Saturday evening dances are held in its large ballroom; Pioneer Village, a site which recreates life in pre-confederation Canada; other places of historical interest such as Fort York, the Marine Museum, Mackenzie House and Colborne Lodge.

DIVISION OF UNIVERSITY EXTENSION

This is the 63rd Summer Session in Arts.

The origins of the Division of University Extension go back to April 3rd, 1894, when the Senate of the University established a committee to develop Extension work. The first Summer School was held in 1905. This was the beginning of the Extension B.A. program. In 1920 the Board of Governors established Extension as a separate department with the late Dr. W. J. Dunlop as the first director.

In addition to the General Arts Course and the General Science Course the Division of University Extension offers courses leading to the completion of the first year of studies in the Bachelor of Science nursing degree. Combining both the Summer and Winter Sessions there were approximately 5700 students enrolled in degree courses in Extension in the 1966-67 session.

The Division also offers programs of study leading to certificates in Business Administration, Public Administration and Criminology. There are a large number of adults enrolled in non-credit courses in the Liberal Arts and Humanities section and in the Business and Professional section. Finally, a significant number of students pursue courses by correspondence.

THE BLUE AND WHITE

Old Toronto, Mother ever dear,
All thy sons thy very name revere,
Yes, we hail thee, ne'er will fail thee,
But will seek thy glory with our might,
Yes, we are ever loyal, faithful, frank and strong,
We will sound thy praises in our song,
Aye, and cheer both loud and long,
The Royal Blue and White.

CHORUS

Toronto is our University,
Shout, oh shout, men of every faculty
Velut arbor aevo,
May she ever thrive, oh
God forever bless our Alma Mater.

Soon our college days will all be past,
Duty bids us part from friends at last;
But we'll sever, trusting ever
Love for Varsity may us unite;
Then we'll serve the mother of us all,
And the merry days of youth recall,
While, whatever may befall,
We'll flaunt the Blue and White.

. . . AND THE YELL

Toronto, Toronto, Toronto Varsitee
We'll shout and fight for the Blue and White
And the honour of U. of T.
Ripparty, Rapperty,
Ripparty, Rapperty, Ree:
Toronto, Toronto, Toronto Varsitee.
